

We hereby inform you of Badminton Denmark's privacy policy, which contains information about how we treat the data we gather in connection to your participation in Badminton Denmark's Denmark Open. You will find Badminton Denmark's privacy policy here (LINK).

- We hereby request your consent to use your portrait image, which you upload yourself, for your event ID card. The ID card manages your access permission to move around at Denmark Open. Your ID card is personal and gives access to the event as described on the card. The ID card can be picked up on your first visit to the gym on the first day of the guard duty.
- We hereby also request your consent to use situational images, video, and sound recordings taken in connection with your visits to Badminton Denmark's Denmark Open activities in general, where you may be in situations, including cropped, cut-out, zoomed, and centred for use, also for collages for subsequent use in the promotion of badminton, competitions, activities, invitations, programmes, magazines, and suchlike.

Consent to both of the above is given by clicking the send button.

Any consent may be revoked at any time by written notice.

Yours sincerely,

Badminton Denmark
